Dear Brother/Sister in Christ,

May Christ, Who died on a Friday and arose on a Sunday, guide and strengthen you this week.

Since the beginning, we Christians listen to the teaching of the Apostles. We live in community; we pray, and break bread together (Acts 2:42). These activities aren't hobbies; they are who we are. Picture a person who walks into the Church, ignores everyone around him/herself, except maybe to look down on someone. The person sits there, kneels, etc, but the mind is not present. He/She then goes home as if nothing happened. The Sunday obligation is not fulfilled. Thank God we don’t have people like this at St. Thomas! This week, we remember the first Family Rule, or Precept of the Church. "You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor." Allow me to make a friendly wager. If, on Saturday, you spend 3+ minutes, thinking about how a dead Man got up and walked on a Sunday, the Sunday obligation will cease to be an obligation. It will be the air you breathe.

A word to our homebound: You are the most important members of our parish. You offer your sufferings to God, for me and for the growth of our parish. Our parish would not exist without you. Thank you so much for your contribution to the life of our community. We are so grateful. A word to travelers: before I was ordained, I once asked a hotel clerk for a “worship directory.” He gave me a list of the nearest Catholic Masses. I asked him how he knew I was Catholic. He said, “Catholics are the only ones that ask!” We are. No matter where we are, Sunday Mass is who we are. And a word to relatives of lapsed Catholics: Did you know that you can attend Mass on someone else’s behalf? Just pray, “Lord, I really wish N. was here with me. Please accept my worship of You on his/her behalf.” I’m told that a seven-year-old did that for his father, and in three years, the father returned to the practice of the Faith.

Some have asked me, "Father, if these precepts come from the Church, does that mean that they don't come from God? That they're manmade?" Remember, Jesus said, "If anyone ignores the Church, treat that person as a pagan and a tax collector (ie, the lowest of the low)" (Matthew 18:17). Just like you have to make rules to keep order in your family, so the Family of God has to have rules. But as you'll see, the rules are not that numerous (there are only five of them), nor are they burdensome (very few are truly incapable of following them). Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Evans

UN DIOS VISIBLE
Nos resulta difícil transmitir ideas a la gente a menos que le mos-tremos algo, que le ilustremos lo que queremos decir. Dios, que es invisible y verdaderamente más allá del entendimiento humano, aparentemente tiene la misma dificultad. La gente quiere ver, no solamente quiere escuchar una idea. Por eso Dios nos dio a Jesucristo, Dios hecho visible en el mundo.

En las semanas recientes hemos visto cómo al nacer Jesús es mostrado a los pastores y a los Reyes Magos, y luego empezó su “vida pública” en su bautismo con Juan. El Evangelio de hoy nos habla de su “primer signo”, que es proveer vino para los invitados a la boda en Caná. Por supuesto, hasta a Jesús, que es Dios hecho visible, no siempre se le entendía en su tiempo y ni siquiera ahora. Por lo tanto, tenemos que considerar lo que vemos: la pobreza y simplicidad de su nacimiento, su humildad y franqueza ante Juan Bautista, su amabilidad y compasión hacia las personas en sus problemas, como la falta de vino en una boda. Pero al conocer a Jesús conocemos a Dios.

SCRIPTURE SPEAKS ON USING ABILITIES: “God has given each of us the ability to do certain things well.” (Romans 12:6) “Be sure to use the abilities God has given to you...Put these abilities to work: Throw yourself into your tasks.” (1 Tm 4:14, 15) Finally, we should remember Colossians 3:23-25, which tells us to work cheerfully in all we do, just as though we are working for Jesus.
