Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ, Who died for you, guide and strengthen you this week!

There I was, Calvary, Jerusalem. On the hill where Jesus died. Many people from various parts of the world were kneeling, praying, kissing the ground. One young man was reading aloud from his Bible. He was reading (thankfully) in North American English, just loud enough for me to hear him, just quiet enough so that everyone else could pray. He was reading the account of the Suffering and Death of Jesus according to St. John. Suddenly, I was there. This was not a past event; it was present. Jesus would gladly do all this again, just for me. It was evening.

Back at the hotel, the local Arab staff prepared a beautiful buffet meal for the guests. On the buffet was a platter of roast beef. The look of it was nauseating. I know what you're thinking. No, it was not unusually cooked. And yes, I usually enjoy my red meat. But looking at that dead flesh, all I could think of was the divine dead Flesh, the Body of our Lord, dead for love of me. I instinctively went for the fish option that night. I later remembered; it was Friday, the day Jesus died.

Not to be preachy, but there's a reason we Catholics all follow the rule: You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church. What does this mean? What must we do?

Let's not worry about Lent now; let's start with the weekly practice. We are all expected to do some form of penance every Friday throughout the year; or, we need to confess our negligence. In the late 1960s, the Bishops of our country reminded us that, just as every Sunday is a little Easter, so every Friday is a little Lent.

"Not eating meat" is the classic Friday practice, and certain countries, like Poland and England, still keep it entirely throughout the year, but in America, feel free to choose an alternative. A good starting place is to do what I did on Calvary. Spend 5-10 minutes, picturing Jesus on the cross. After that, you can eat all the meat you want, if you can! Every Friday is about His Sacrifice more than yours. “The Way of the Cross. Here indeed you have a sturdy and fruitful devotion! Spend a few moments each Friday going over those fourteen points of our Lord's Passion and Death. I assure you that you will gain strength for the whole of the week.” (St. Josemaria, Way, 556).

Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

Los días de fiesta ya pasaron, el año ya viene encima. ¿Y qué clase de año será? De acuerdo con las palabras de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy, será “el año de la gracia del Señor”. Y Jesús con seguridad no se refiere solamente a los próximos trescientos sesenta y cinco días cuando hablaba a la gente en ese tiempo.

El anuncio de la “llegada” de la gracia de Dios lo hizo Jesús para todos los tiempos, para cada año. De manera similar, leemos hoy en Nehemías cómo la gente se reunía con solemnidad a escuchar la Palabra de Dios como si fuera la primera vez. Escuchaban y luego se postraban con el rostro en la tierra y lloraban. Pero el profeta decía: “Este día está dedicado al Señor… no estén tristes”.

STEWARDSHIP AND LOVE: Love is faith in action. Two of the most important questions we can ask ourselves are: “Who do I love?” and “Who loves me?” As Christians, we put faith into action by extending our concern for people beyond ourselves. We show our concern for others in our actions and relationships. Is our concern for others Christ-like? Do we reach out to help people in need?
