Dear Sister/Brother in Christ,

May Christ, the good Shepherd Who goes after His sheep, guide and strengthen you this week.

Yesterday, February 2nd, we celebrated the Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple. This feast day, forty days after Christmas, marks a shift in our devotion. Up to now, we have been still basking in the glory of Christmas; today, we begin our great preparation for the greater glory of Easter! In other words, you might want to start thinking about what you'll do for Lent.

"Confess/Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good!" (Ps. 118:1). Confession is praise and thanks. It is a celebration, a party, not a trip to the dentist office.

People trying to lose weight, will often meet with an expert every week. And yet, the same people find weekly confession extreme. Interesting. The concept is the same. The scale number goes up, goes down, stays the same, but if we keep weighing in, and doing our best, we eventually improve. I once told a priest, "Father, I've been going to confession weekly for the past ten years. Anyone else would be a saint, but I, I am still the same."

He said, "What if you hadn't confessed that much?"

The picture below forever changed my view of the confession screen. Every time I go to confession, I ask Jesus to speak to me through the priest. I always hear something totally unexpected!

The evil one once appeared to a priest. The priest commanded him, in the name of Christ, to say what his greatest fear was. The evil one said, "My greatest fear, is frequent confession."

When was your last confession? This may come as scary news, but I say it in nothing but love. To wait more than a year to go to confession, is to commit a grave, mortal sin. It is to cut yourself off from Mercy Himself. It is to make the evil one very happy. Jesus and I love you very much, and we are waiting with open arms and a smile. Christ, through His Church, commands: You shall confess your sins at least once a year. If it's been awhile, just walk in, and say, "Father, I'm scared," or "Father, help me." I'll take it from there. Until then, know that I am always

Yours in the Heart of Christ, the infinite ocean of mercy,

Fr. Evans

UNA MISIÓN CONTINUA

En la sinagoga de su pueblo natal, los vecinos se maravillaban con las palabras de Jesús. No obstante, se preguntaban: “¿No es este el hijo de José?”

El conflicto surge cuando Jesús empieza a definirse de una manera nueva. Las tensiones aumentan cuando se compara con los antiguos profetas Elías y Eliseo. Las tensiones se multiplican cuando Jesús empieza a hablar de una nueva misión para el pueblo de Dios: la Buena Nueva de la Escritura está dirigida a todos.

En su famoso pasaje de la primera carta a los Corintios, san Pablo nos recuerda la naturaleza del amor eterno. El amor no termina. En la lectura de hoy, se nos recuerda que, como el amor, la misión de Jesús no se puede detener. Jesús se desliza entre la multitud de perseguidores y sigue adelante con nuevos retos. Estamos llamados a esta misma perseverancia en nombre del amor.

As Christian stewards, do we willingly volunteer some of our time and talent to the work of the Church? Whatever we are doing had better be important, it costs us a day of our life.
