Dear Sister/Brother in Christ,

May Christ, the Bridegroom, guide and strengthen you this week!

Thanks for your prayers for my trip; it was delightful! I have a saying. I don’t take vacations; I just go away and collect more stories for homilies. So get ready!

Within my first week here at St. Thomas, I’ll admit it, I was a little nervous. New parish, new people, no one I knew. But within my first week, so many of you said, “Father, if you need anything, just let us know!” With such kindness and generosity, I’ve become spoiled! You all do so much for our parish!

This week’s Precept of the Church is in our blood, in our DNA, here at St. Thomas. Which one? You shall provide for the needs of the Church. And, no, “needs” does not only mean “monetary needs.” Many gifted people, all using their unique gifts, help us to thrive as a parish family. Our parish church is a family home, not a restaurant. You are a co-owner, not a customer, a steward, not a pew-warmer. This is your home. The people that you don’t know, that show up here looking for God, THEY are the customers. Thanks for helping me welcome and serve them.

But our Church is bigger than our parish. “Peter was kept in prison [see Rembrandt picture below], so the entire Church prayed earnestly for him” (Acts 12:5). Prayer for the Pope is a thoroughly biblical practice, and has been done since the beginning of Christianity. Peter, while no longer in prison, still needs our prayers and penance. A friend in college (not a seminarian) once told me that, each day, he would offer a small sacrifice for the Pope, something like not putting sugar in his coffee, or salt on his food, but something each day. He seemed to me to be very wise beyond his years, and his outlook had the perfect combination of global and local. Perhaps this practice made his heart that way.

Each month, the Holy Father gives us a different prayer intention. For March, he asks us to pray for the Recognition of the Right of Christian Communities: That Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.” Several people have told me about our annual Corpus Christi procession through the streets; I can’t wait! Imagine living in a town or country where such a practice would not be allowed. Let’s keep praying for our Pope and fellow Christians. Know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

LOS ESPECTÁCULOS INTERIORES

En este tercer Domingo de lecturas del Sermón del Llano, Jesús habla del alma interior y sus expresiones exteriores. Usa imágenes para enseñar. Nos habla a todos nosotros.

Jesús ve un cable que conecta el alma con las expresiones del alma, palabras y hechos. Usa un poco de exageración para recalcar el punto. Nos urge a limpiar toda la basura que nos hace ciegos. Sabe que tenemos una tremenda habilidad para cegarnos ante nuestras propias debilidades, aunque sean tan grandes como una viga. Sabe, también, lo dispuestos que estamos a sacar a relucir los fallos de los demás por minúsculos que sean.

Y también esto es para el consumo general nuestro; lo bueno sólido y lo malo sólido eventualmente saldrá a relucir. Hay un dicho en latín que hace eco de las imágenes de Jesús, y es muy cierto: “Lo que se engendra en el hueso se mostrará en la carne”. Al fin y al cabo, lo interior saldrá afuera.

SEASON OF LENT: Use the Season of Lent as a time to try out new ways to serve others. There are many who have skills which they have never used in Christian service, perhaps because they fear that they might get stuck in a particular form of ministry forever. What better time than the Season of Lent to try out a new form of ministry as an adventure in faith. It could be visiting the sick or the elderly, or a family member, or any other form of ministry.
