A PRIEST’S GREATER LOVE

As we celebrate our First Holy Communions at St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, I can’t help but reflect on my own deep love for the most Holy Eucharist. From the first time I received Holy Communion, my love for Jesus has grown ever stronger and my understanding of His place in my life ever more sure.

Every time we gather for Holy Mass, I try to remember Jesus proves His love by offering me His glorified risen true Body and Blood, soul and divinity. I love seeing all the smiling faces and even those not sometimes smiling faces because of some personal sorrow or family strife. However, I always love gathering together with people, the parishioners of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, every time we have Holy Mass.

I love the music. I don’t always sing, but I enjoy listening and it can certainly elevate my heart to holier emotions and my mind to more beautiful thoughts. The Scriptures command my attention and fill my being with wisdom from on high. The homily is only okay, especially when I am giving it, though I recite the Creed with great pride knowing the sacrifices endured to preserve its Catholic (universal) meaning and God’s truth. During Consecration, I can’t help but reflect on the depth of the Lord’s love as He suffered heroically when I pray the words, “This is My Body; this is My Blood given up for you; My Blood poured out for you.”

The Our Father Prayer before Holy Communion is always the loudest at the 4:30 pm, 9:00 am, and 10:30 am Masses. But whenever we recite it together, the Christian community throughout the world feels truly present here. As I hold up the Consecrated Host and invite everyone to look upon the Glorified Lamb—once slain now risen. My innermost being thirsts for Him Who will soon be in my soul.

Of all the reasons I love being a Catholic Christian, none is greater than experiencing Jesus most personally in the reception of Holy Communion.

“Who Am I to Judge?”
May 2—June 27

What is “right” and “wrong”? Is what’s right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time?

These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. How do we talk about morality in a relativistic world? In this small group study program featuring Edward Sri, we’ll explore the classical view of morality and find that it’s not merely a set of guiding principles for theoretical situations—it is an entire way of life.

- Thursday nights (5/2—6/27) No meeting 6/13
- 7:00—8:00 pm
- Lower Level—Oak St. Church—451 W. Terra Cotta Ave.
- An 8 pt. Study—attend one or all—facilitated by Allyson Svigelj

SERVICIO A LARGO PLAZO

“Voy a pescar”. ¡Qué anuncio! Si preguntó quién lo dijo, pero no digo que es una frase que está en la Biblia, podríamos decir: “el abuelo o el tío Alfredo”, o admitir “¡lo dije yo el verano pasado!” Pero es una frase tomada de la Biblia, del Evangelio de hoy. La persona que lo dijo una vez afirmó “tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo del Dios vivo”. Así es, ¡fue Pedro! Así que la frase aparece al final. El domingo pasado Jesús dijo: “Así como el Padre me ha enviado, así los envío yo”. Pero Pedro parece determinado a regresar al oficio que tenía antes de ser apóstol, hasta que Jesús interviene, haciendo que Pedro diga ahora lo siguiente: “Señor, tú sabes que te quiero” y la llamada apostólica aparece más clara, “apacienta a mis ovejas”. Así lo hace Pedro. Los Hechos presentan las consecuencias: Pedro declara: “Debemos obedecer a Dios antes que a los hombres”. Como el Apocalipsis dice: “Digno es el cordero”, para recibir el servicio de toda la vida de Pedro y las nuestras.
