REVEREND JOHN R. EVANS, PASTOR

Dear Sister/Brother in Christ,

May the Holy Spirit guide and strengthen you this week.

A couple of public thank yous. Thank you to Charlie and the kindergarten class for the nice note. I also want to express my gratitude to all of you who have expressed sympathy for my grandmother’s passing, and/or congratulations for my tenth anniversary. As life has its ups and downs, God and our Faith remain perfectly stable. We continue our reflection on the Creed.

A Shoah (Holocaust) survivor shared his story with a crowd. This was a German speaking to Germans. After the talk, a man approached him privately and said, “You were sent from heaven. I was a high-ranking SS officer, and have come to ask for forgiveness.”

The Jewish man’s response was “There will never be forgiveness for those crimes. But your confession only makes sense if you break your silence and tell the younger generation what you did and what you saw.” With all due respect to what this man endured, he was not a Christian. We Christians have a different view. Forgiveness is not cheap. It is readily available, but it is not cheap. It was paid for by the Blood of Christ, and can never be taken for granted.

“I believe in . . . the forgiveness of sins.” “Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” Let’s pray for each other, that we may mean what we say. I will always be

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Evans

La Ascensión del Señor
PIES EN EL PISO
“¡Hasta la próxima semana, mantén tus pies en el suelo y sigue buscando las estrellas!” Hoy no es la sabiduría bíblica, sino el sabio consejo del legendario DJ Casey Kasem, escuchado por generaciones a lo largo y ancho de Estados Unidos por generaciones, el desafiante cierre de los Top 40 de Estados Unidos. Aunque Casey no citaba las Escrituras, hoy los Hechos de los Apóstoles ofrecen un consejo parecido. Cuando Jesús ascendió, los discípulos “miraban fijamente el cielo”. ¿No preferiríamos una mirada relajante del alma en un cielo azul tranquilo hasta un enfoque descorazonador en una tierra manchada de sangre? Pero los interlocutores celestiales preguntaron a los primeros discípulos, ¿por qué están parados mirando el cielo? ¡La tierra espera su misión! Mientras nuestros corazones deben “seguir buscando en el cielo”, nosotros necesitamos “mantener nuestros pies en la tierra”. Los pasajes de la Ascensión y el jubileo de la misericordia nos recuerdan, el Jesús que veneramos cuando “ascendió al cielo” vive aquí mismo en medio de nosotros, esperando nuestro reconocimiento y servicio amoroso.

MAY BOX OF PRAYER REQUESTS

Thank you

Many of our parishioners devoted to Mary filled her prayer box with special intentions during the month of May. On Saturday, May 25th, the 7:30 am Mass was celebrated by Father Evans for your "May Special Requests to Our Blessed Mother". Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of Mercy with confidence we invoke your intercession. Thank you.

Adoration Chapel
Oak St. Church,
451 W. Terra Cotta Avenue
Spend time in the direct, physical presence of God. The Adoration Chapel is attached to our Oak St. Church on the corner of Oak St. and Route 176. It is open from 6:00 am to 10:00 pm every day. A security card will be needed after hours. Contact adorationchapel@stthomascl.church. Thank you to all our adorers, who through their prayer and dedication, enable us to keep our Adoration Chapel open 24/7.

Please consider taking an Adoration Hour this summer. We currently have many spots open in our Adoration schedule. Maybe you have a different schedule for the summer that allows you to take one of our hours, especially those that only have one adorer. Ideally, we would like to have partners for adorers in all hours, to help cover the hour when one adorer goes on vacation or has a family conflict. The extra adorers for June, July and August will really help maintain 24/7 coverage in our Chapel. Check out our website at www.stthomascl.church/adorere for more info and to see the hours we have open. Thank you.

Call Allyson Svigaj at 815-455-5400, ext. 404 or adorationchapel@stthomascl.church for info.
