Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish,

At retirement parties, anniversaries, the Oscars, and most award presentations, the award recipient thanks others. I remember when Evander Holyfield beat Mike Tyson and became the heavyweight boxing champion of the world. When awarded his championship belt, Evander began by praising God repeatedly: “I want to thank God, I want to thank God, I want to thank GOD.”

A reporter in the ring asked “is there anyone else you want to thank?” Evander stopped and paused and shouted: “The Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit; I want to thank the Holy Spirit.”

First off, I thank God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit for providing me with more than I could ever dream of here at St. Thomas the Apostle Parish. Secondly, to the Blessed Virgin Mary for all her protection and assistance in obtaining immeasurable grace and perseverance to serve as a priest longer than I deserve. Thank you to Msgr. Daniel Hermes, Father John Evans, Father William Tunarosa, the School Administration/Teachers/Parish Center Staff and all the Volunteers of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, and especially to Donna Kothera — I am immeasurably grateful to all of you.

To Father Akan Simon, who has shared over 23 years of friendship mostly as priests and 8-1/2 years as a housemate, you are the best and I love you brother.

I want to single out the Choirs under the direction of Julie Hermann, the Religious Education Teachers and Volunteers under the direction of Charlotte Kolodzik, the Funeral Luncheon Ladies, the Homebound Eucharistic Ministers, and all those working behind the scenes who have added to the glory of God and salvation of souls. Thank you to the RCIA Team — Deacons — the Sacristans — the Wedding Coordinators — That Man Is You — the Haitian Volunteers — The Little Christopher Shoppe Workers — the St. Thomas Women’s Club — the Knights of Columbus — Starbuck Guys — the Little Way Bookstore.

Thank you to those, who through great labor and sacrifice, brought food to the rectory on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Thank you to all the local restaurants for feeding me for free all these years especially DaBaffone Cucina Italiana Restaurant, La Mexican Buena Vista, and Crystal Lake Rib House.

To the so many who have suffered loss, death and unparalleled grief, your trials with trust in God are examples that brought me to deeper faith.

If you are reading this, you matter immensely and serve an increasingly large role in God’s plan for world peace and the salvation of souls.

For any young man considering becoming a priest, my words cannot possibly communicate the depth of my soul’s joy and love in fulfilling God’s call to serve as His priest.

To all those who attend Holy Mass, especially the daily Mass goers, the adorers of the Blessed Sacrament, to all the loved ones I have baptized, married or buried, and to all who call St. Thomas the Apostle Parish “Home” — my deepest sincere thanks for being honored to serve you.

With the Blessed Virgin Mary’s prayers, always your priest,

Rev. Jerome P. Koutnik

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE SCHOOL NEWS

Hoy celebramos a la Santísima Trinidad, uno de los misterios más confusos de nuestra fe. Por medio de este misterio, experimentamos nuestra relación con Dios: Creador, Salvador y Santificador. Esta relación no es fácil de entender o describir. No se hace más clara por el análisis. Su complejidad refleja la complejidad de todas nuestras relaciones. Entendemos nuestras relaciones con nuestra esposa, nuestros hijos, nuestros padres y nuestros amigos solamente en el día a día, ritos anuales y esos momentos que cambian la vida que compartimos. Entendemos nuestras relaciones al vivir con ellas. Las relaciones que tenemos con los que amamos y con quienes nos aman, nos sustentan por medio de una vida incierta y difícil. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad.

Lo que es sorprendente de las lecturas de hoy es que cada una está incompleta. Lo que ellas ofrecen es una descripción de un momento de nuestra relación, una memoria de un tiempo y un evento donde nuestra relación tiene sentido, aunque ese sentido pueda estar más allá de nuestra habilidad para describirla completamente. Frecuentemente eso es todo lo que ofrece nuestra fe, es decir, una memoria de lo que es posible, lo que se promete lo que se ha dado. Una memoria de eternidad, de amor, más allá del entendimiento, debe ser apreciada y nutrida incluso si no es completamente comprendida. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad.
