Dear Sister/Brother in Christ,

May the Holy Spirit guide and strengthen you this week.

“I just wish I could freeze this moment forever!” Have you ever thought or said that? Another way of asking that would be to say, when did you feel most alive? Maybe you were with a spouse on a second honeymoon, or a child at an amusement park or baseball game, or enjoying a beautiful sight like the ocean or a mountain range. Wherever you were, you were given just a taste of the reality that we profess in the last three words of our Creed. Vitam aeternam, Amen! Life everlasting, Amen!

A wise priest used to tell me, never use the word “heaven.” Heaven sounds boring. It conjures up images of little baby angels (not the strong St. Michael that could blow up the universe with a blink of an eye, if he wished and God let him), images of harps, and clouds, and just sitting there, bored. No. Life everlasting, Amen!

People often ask me what “Amen” means. In the Old Testament, when the prophets speak of the “God of Truth,” they say, in the Hebrew, the God of the Amen. So Amen can mean two things. 1. It is true, or I believe. So the last word of the Creed, repeats the first, “I believe.” 2. Let this truth come to me! I know eternal life exists, but may I get there, and avoid hell.

Next week, we’ll discuss one way to let the creed enhance personal prayer. Until then, know that I remain

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Evans

ST. JOSEPH CHURCH,
UMON OKON, NIGERIA

As you may already know, the Church that currently serves the Catholic community in Father Simon’s home village in Nigeria is in bad shape. Because of St. Joseph Church’s age and construction type, it is not a comfortable or safe place for the local villagers to worship. Among its many challenges, the Church’s roof leaks and it is subject to insect and termite infestation … it is well past its useful life. It is time for a new St Joseph Church! For the past several years, with the help and direction of our beloved Father Simon, time, talent and treasure have been generously donated by St. Thomas parishioners and extended family & friends. Significant work has been completed and the new Church is taking shape. We sincerely thank all who have already given!

While we are getting close to the finish line, we are not done yet. In order to be able to open the NEW St. Joseph Church doors in time for 2020 Easter Mass, we are in need of an additional $250,000. These funds are necessary for things such as a finished Altar, flooring, pews, windows, finished walls and an HVAC system to name but a few. Over the coming months you will be able to stay current on the progress of our mission:

* In the narthex on the Building4God Project Banner or TV Monitor
* In the Weekly Bulletin
* At www.building4god.com

Please consider picking up a donation envelope available near our Building4God Project Banner in the Narthex at the Oak St. Church

Much needed tax-deductible donations can be made directly at www.building4god.com or via mail at:

Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
LA PROVIDENCIA DE DIOS
Las lecturas de hoy celebran la providencia de Dios. No importa lo maravilloso o doloroso que sean nuestras relaciones, Dios siempre nos provee. Nadie cuida tanto de nosotros como lo hace Dios.

Isaías nos deleita con una imagen profundamente íntima de Dios cuidándonos “como una madre cuida de su hijo”. El profeta nos describe no como los habituales “hijos de Dios” sino como “bebés”. No debemos resistirnos a esta imagen, sino regocijarnos con ella. Confianzando en el cuidado de Dios, nosotros podemos bajar la guardia y descansar como bebés en el regazo de nuestra madre.

La confianza de san Pablo en Dios le permite estar en paz. Audazmente dice que nadie puede “ponerle obstáculos” por que se ha entregado completamente a Jesús. Y cuando Jesús envía a sus discípulos a predicar y sanar, él los desafía a no cargar nada para ellos, sino tener fe en su guía.

Colecta Dominical
Las colectas del domingo 30 de junio y el domingo 7 de julio, se-rán publicadas en el boletín del domingo 14 de julio 2019.

CONFIANZA  La confianza no siempre se tiene por tener la razón, sino por no tener miedo a equivocarse. —Anónimo
