Dear Brother/Sister in Christ,

May the Holy Spirit, guide and strengthen you this week.

Today, I thought I would show you a new way to pray. Set a time; five minutes is not too little, but an hour is not too much. Begin by fervently praying, "Come, Holy Spirit, set my heart on fire, bring light to my mind, and strength to my will. Holy Mary, pray for me. St. Joseph, pray for me. My patron saint N, pray for me." Then, recite the Creed straight through. I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, +++ and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. +++ I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Then, recite it again, thoughtfully, phrase by phrase. What does it mean for me to say, "I believe in God"? Do I really? How often do I act as if I were God? Talk to God about this. Lord, help me to believe in You more.

As long as there is meaning, refreshment in this one phrase, keep pondering it, praying with it. As soon as that ends, go to the next phrase. Keep going until the timer runs out, or you come to the end of the Creed. If there is more time, go back to the beginning. A new phrase might "pop out" at you.

At the end, pray, “Lord, thank you for this time; help me to serve you well today and always. Holy Mary, pray for me. St. Joseph, pray for me. My patron Saint N, pray for me.”

I dare you. Do this daily for the next few days, see what happens. Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Evans

NO 5:30 PM MONDAY EVENING CONFESSIONS MONDAY, JULY 15, 2019
On Monday, July 15, 2019, we will not be hearing confessions at the Oak St. Church at 5:30 pm (due to several priests on retreat). Thank you for your kind understanding.
As you may already know, the Church that currently serves the Catholic community in Father Simon’s home village in Nigeria is in bad shape. Because of St. Joseph Church’s age and construction type, it is not a comfortable or safe place for the local villagers to worship. Among its many challenges, the Church’s roof leaks and it is subject to insect and termite infestation . . . it is well past its useful life. It is time for a new St Joseph Church! For the past several years, with the help and direction of our beloved Father Simon, time, talent and treasure have been generously donated by St. Thomas parishioners and extended family & friends. Significant work has been completed and the new Church is taking shape.

We sincerely thank all who have already given! While we are getting close to the finish line, we are not done yet. In order to be able to open the NEW St. Joseph Church doors in time for 2020 Easter Mass, we are in need of an additional $250,000. These funds are necessary for things such as a finished Altar, flooring, pews, windows, finished walls and an HVAC system to name but a few. Over the coming months you will be able to stay current on the progress of our mission:

* In the narthex on the Building4God Project Banner or TV Monitor
* In the Weekly Bulletin
* At www.building4god.com

Please consider picking up a donation envelope available near our Building4God Project Banner in the Narthex at the Oak St. Church.

Much needed tax-deductible donations can be made directly at www.building4god.com or via mail at:

SEMINARIAN JAMES LINKENHELD

4-PART STUDY CALLED ‘CHRIST ET AL’

We are very excited to announce that we have Seminarian James Linkenheld, who is studying at the Pontifical North American College in Rome, joining us for the next couple of months. He is doing a 4-part study called 'Christ et al', focusing on the radicality of Christ throughout the ages, and the newness that Christ has brought to every age.

The second session on “Christ and the Early Church” will be streamed live on Monday, July 15, at approximately 9:15 am.

The third session will be streamed live on Monday, July 29, at approximately 9:15 am.

The fourth and last session will be at the Oak St. Church on Thursday, August 8, 2019, at 7:00 pm (with a reception to follow). All are invited.

The first session of the study, “Christ and the Ancient World” was streamed live on our YouTube Channel on Monday, June 24th.

Can't join us for the live stream? No problem, a recording of each session will also be available on our YouTube channel and will be sent out via the weekly e-newsletter.

Decimoquinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
EL DESEO DE DIOS PARA SER CONOCIDO
La lectura del Antiguo Testamento del libro del Deuteronomio alaba a Dios por escribir los mandamientos en nuestros cuerpos. La ley de Dios no es extraña o distante, sino una parte natural de nosotros. En su carta a los colosenses, san Pablo hace eco de Moisés, alabando a Dios por ser uno de nosotros. Él, verdaderamente humano, de carne y hueso, Jesús nos recuerda que Dios siempre quiere ser para nosotros alguien familiar al quien podemos reconocer, el que es verdadero Dios, quiere estar en buenos términos con cada uno de nosotros. El deseo apasionado de Dios para ser conocido por nosotros es tan maravilloso para disfrutarse. El Evangelio de Lucas nos ayuda a entender cómo responder. La parábola del Buen Samaritano nos provee de consejos prácticos para quienes creen en la intimidad del amor de Dios para ellos y quiere compartir ese amor con otros. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP: Christian Stewardship successfully bridges the material world around us and the world of the Spirit within us. Stewardship enables Christians to measure the extent of our faith in, and love of Jesus by the kind and quality of the stewardship we perform. Stewardship is not job-oriented, or project-minded — it is a way of life for a lifetime.
