My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ guide and strengthen you this week!

I’d like to start by thank you all for your overwhelming kindness in welcoming me. It is said, arriving at a new parish, is like sitting in the driver’s seat of a new car. You know how to drive generally, but the buttons are all different! So thank you for your patience with me as I learn the “buttons” of our wonderful parish.

Let’s continue our reflection on the three “universal calls.” This second call, to mission, is in your blood as a St. Thomas parishioner; but, sadly, many in other places are unaware. At a former parish, I preached a homily on the numbers of lapsed Catholics, considering various ways that our congregants could invite them back. Two days later, a letter arrived in my mailbox. “Father, if YOU want to get those people back, why don’t YOU do the following…”

How easy it is to pass the buck! At some point (I blame the 1500s), people started to think of evangelization as the job of “professionals,” priests and religious. The rest of us were expected simply to “pray, pay and obey.” But that is not how it was in the beginning, in the early Church. Back then, everyone evangelized within the context of their daily lives, at home, in school, in the workplace, out on the town, etc. The apostles/priests and other celibates (widows and widowers, unmarried men and women) specialized in evangelizing the evangelists, through teaching, encouragement and above all, through the sacraments.

Of course, I tell you nothing new. When people ask me, “Father, how can I bring Christ to the world?” I teach a very simple prayer, that I pray every morning. “Lord, grant that none may love Thee less this day because of me; that never word nor act of mine, may turn one soul from Thee; and, ever daring, yet another grace would I implore, that on this day, because of me, more souls would love Thee more!”

I show you the painting below (Millet’s Angelus) as a simple reminder that, to evangelize, you do not need to quit your job, or abandon your home, or do anything too out of the ordinary. Just pray the above prayer, and watch it happen! Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

LLAMADOS POR DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a escuchar dos llamados. El primero es el llamado del Señor al profeta Amós, el “pastor y cultivador de higos” (Amós 7:14). El segundo es el llamado del Señor Jesús a los Doce, a quienes envió “de dos en dos” (Marcos 6:7). Estas personas fieles respondieron al llamado, profetizaron y predicaron a aquellos a quienes habían sido enviados. En el Bautismo, cada uno de nosotros recibió un llamado. La segunda lectura nos invita a reflexionar sobre ese llamado ya que se nos recuerda que hemos sido elegidos en Cristo y que, por amor, Dios “nos eligió... para que fuéramos sus hijos” (Efesios 1:5). Por ser hijos adoptivos de Dios se nos llama a llevar la presencia de Cristo a nuestro matrimonio, familiares, escuelas y sitios de trabajo. Síntámonos inspirados a decir “sí” hoy al llamado que escuchamos una vez más en la palabra viva de Dios.  Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

WE ARE NOT IN CONTROL: Stewardship is about poverty in the sense that one is “not in control.” We all want to have control — and to give this up is the ultimate in poverty. Part of stewardship is to acknowledge that we are not in control and that the resources that come to us are as a result of God’s gifts.
