Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ guide and strengthen you this week!

The Gran Kermes Latino festival last week was thoroughly delightful! The music, food, games, fellowship and fun were all overflowing! I want to thank all who contributed to the event in one way or another. As well, if I may give a “shout out” to my fellow “gringos” who attended and supported our Latin brothers and sisters. It was nice not to be the only “fish out of water.” Yes, we have Mass in different languages, but we are one parish that is a proud portion of Christ’s one, holy Catholic Church. Remember the words of St. John Paul II. From the Arctic Circle to the Strait of Magellan, there is only one great continent called America, and all who live on that continent, whatever their language or culture, are Americans.

In these past six weeks, I have been overwhelmed by the truth of what Monsignor Hermes told me. We ARE a parish of apostles! It’s so true! I am here to tell you, sadly, this is not typical of most parishes. Most parishes work on a “consumer model.” This is where the parishioners see themselves as customers, and the parish staff is simply “behind the counter.” While it is true that I am here for you, I am here for you as an “apostle of apostles,” “evangelizer of evangelizers.” So, if there is any way that I can better assist you in your apostolate (yes, you have one; that’s what the next few weeks will be about), please let me know.

For now, while we still have a bit of summer left, let’s talk about “apostolic rest.” Yes, rest is and can be apostolic! Two ways come to mind.

First, the obvious. I was in high school, and my mother and I were traveling, looking at colleges. We asked the front desk clerk for a “worship directory,” figuring it would have a list of various religious services, and we’d find the nearest parish. The clerk simply gave us a list of nearby Sunday Masses. We asked him how he knew we were Catholic. His response, “Catholics are the only ones who ask.” Even when you’re on vacation, go to Mass, and be an apostle!

Second, anything enjoyable, but not sinful, can be made holy. God made the lake and the golf course. So next time you enjoy either of these things (or anything else), make a quick, devout sign of the cross, and immediately begin enjoying. Guess what, your whole time on the course or the lake, is now a prayer. It is holy, and not less enjoyable. Until next week, know that I remain yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

EL TRABAJO QUE DIOS QUIERE
¡Estamos tan ocupados! Muchos de nosotros tenemos más de un trabajo y parecería que nunca tenemos suficiente tiempo. Somos trabajadores, voluntarios, padres, amigos y la mayoría es más de una cosa a la vez. Pero, ¿cuál de estos es el trabajo que Dios quiere?

Rara vez vemos nuestro trabajo común como el trabajo que Dios quiere. Quizás pensamos que debemos ser ministros o sacerdotes, misioneros o benefactores, que debemos realizar trabajos de tiempo completo que se consideran como “las obras de Dios”. Pero todo lo que hacemos con un corazón fiel y con amor por el prójimo es una obra de Dios. Cada uno tiene un papel que cumplir en el mundo y muchos dones son necesarios. No siempre podemos ver la relación directa que existe entre nuestro trabajo diario y los designios de Dios. Pero confiamos y tenemos fe en que Dios nos guía a hacer lo que es necesario, cuando es necesario. ¿Cuál es “la obra de Dios?” “La obra de Dios consiste en que crean en aquél a quien él ha enviado” (Juan 6:29).
