Dear Sister/Brother in Christ,

May Christ the Bridegroom guide and strengthen you this week!

“We cannot live without Sunday!” The year was 304. We were arrested, 49 of us, in the small village of Abitene, in present-day Tunisia (see picture below). We had been forbidden from gathering on the first day of the week, from possessing bibles, and from building a structure (ie, parish church) in which to gather. WE. DID. IT. ANYWAY! The mayor asked us how we could be so stupid as to disobey the orders of the Emperor, binding under pain of death. Our answer: sine Dominico non possumus! Without the Lord’s Day, we cannot live! The 49 were tortured and killed for a day that, sadly, I often take for granted.

Sunday is not just something we do; Sunday is who we are! Last week, we thought about how Sunday builds up the individual as the Day of Man (dies hominis). Today, we remember that today is also the Day of the Church (dies ecclesiæ). It is our chance to build each other up.

First, a word to our homebound. You are the heart of our parish! Your sufferings, accepted willingly from God, and offered back to Him, give me strength. Please do not think that you are absent from Sunday Mass. You are very much here with us!

And thank you to all who struggle to make it here each week. I’m thinking of the elderly who, with great difficulty, push their walkers or wheelchairs up the aisle. Thank you for offering your sufferings to Christ that your pastor and our parish can become holier and more numerous. I’m also thinking of the young families, who bring their little ones to meet Christ, in spite of restlessness, diapers, etc. Our Lady and St. Joseph are so proud of you! The classic proverb: if no babies are crying, the parish is dying!

But I’m especially thinking of all of our volunteers. You who get here earlier to greet people (officially or unofficially), to set up for Holy Mass, to serve, to lector, to help me feed our people with Jesus Himself. And you who help with homebound ministry, in religious ed, in the various women’s guilds and the Knights of Columbus, etc. I’m afraid I’m forgetting someone, but you know who you are. I love you all, and I wish I could clone you. Believe me! We need more of you! You build up the Body of Christ!

If you feel called to serve in a new way, please call our office. You are always allowed to start something, to end something, or even to “change jobs.” “Meg (our liturgy coordinator), I’ve been lectoring for years now, but I feel like I’m being called to help distribute Communion instead” is a perfectly acceptable request.

For all that you do, things seen and unseen, know that I remain

Eternally grateful,

Fr. Evans

Time & Talent Sunday
September 7 and 8, 2019

“Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it” – 1 Corinthians 12:27

The Body of Christ is His Church, the entire Church and the individual parishes. In order for this parish to serve her members, we need you to be part of our ministries!

There are so many ways you can participate, whether you want to serve in a ministry or join a ministry that helps you build your faith through fellowship.

Our most important need is catechists for RE. We need people to teach the next generation of Catholics all about this beautiful faith of ours, from the Sacraments to the Saints!

Other ministries in need of help are:
- Outreach
- Donut Sundays
- Little Christopher Resale Shoppe
- C.L. Food Pantry
- Women’s Club

Please prayerfully consider joining one or more of the amazing ministries that serve the Body of Christ! If you want to join a new ministry, pull the Time & Talent section out of the 2019 Guidebook that will be delivered to your house and return it to Mass the weekend of Sept. 7-8. There is no need to fill it out if you are staying in a ministry you currently serve.

DA LA BIENVENIDA AL EXTRANJERO

Ya casi nos hemos acostumbrado a ver fotografías en las redes sociales e historias en los periódicos de inmigrantes latinoamericanos y refugiados escapando de la violencia y la destrucción de sus propios países, intentando hacer una vida mejor en un lugar más seguro. También nos ha tocado ver las reacciones de las personas que intentan mantenerlas lejos de sus países, que se oponen a ayudar a los extranjeros y a los niños indefensos. ¿Se nos ha olvidado la enseñanza de Jesús de ayudar a los desamparados y a los extranjeros? “Traerán todos a sus hermanos y hermanas de todas las naciones... a Jerusalén, a mi monte santo, dice el Señor”.

En las tres lecturas de hoy, se nos dice que debemos ser hospitalarios con los extranjeros, dar la bienvenida a los discípulos del Señor, lo cual nos lleva a la paz, y a “entrar por la puerta que es angosta” a la gloria del reino de Dios.
