Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ guide and strengthen you this week.

“Suzie, big favor, could you offer some of your sufferings for me? That I can become a better, holier priest?”

“Ughghgh!!! Not you too, Father!! You’re the fifth priest to ask me that!” she yelled at me from her hospital bed. I smiled, said I’d leave her alone and ask someone else. This has been a custom of mine since my first year as a priest. At first I was hesitant to ask; it made me feel selfish, asking a favor like that. But the first time I asked, the patient smiled and said he’d be honored. The second time, the lady cried, saying she’d felt so helpless, but now, she had a mission!

This week, we resume our reflection on the different ways to be an apostle. Yes, prayerful suffering is an apostolate; in fact, it’s among the greatest! Our Lord Himself did it, and His Mother joined in! This apostolate is definitely not limited to those in a hospital. Try this; pick a prayer intention. Anything. (If I may put in a plug for your new pastor, he’d be very grateful!). Then, make some small sacrifice, like no sugar in your coffee or salt on your food, just for the one meal. Do that every day this week, starting tomorrow. See what happens! Know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

Dear anonymous letter writer,

I’m afraid I had no other way of writing back to you, so here goes. No doubt that what you had to say was worth reading; however, many priests (older, wiser and more virtuous than I) have advised me never to read anonymous letters, as they frequently offend against charity in some way. Not that you would put such things in your letter, but personally, I’m sure I would read it, and have more questions, that could not be answered anonymously. As such, I have yet to read your letter.

If you wish your letter to be read, please resend the letter, with your name and address in it, on an envelope marked “Confidential.” I promise that I will keep such a letter confidential. Thank you so much!

Fr. Evans

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH GUIDEBOOK/DIRECTORY 2018-19

Time and Talent Signup Weekend—September 8 and 9, 2018

In the last few weeks you should have or will be receiving our St. Thomas the Apostle Parish 2018-2019 Guidebook/Directory in your mailbox! This handy Guidebook will give you all the information about our Parish you will need. It includes information about most of our Parish Ministries and their contact information. We hope you will find this Guidebook/Directory useful as you discern what talents you can share with our amazing St. Thomas the Apostle Parish Family.

You will find our annual Time and Talent Signup Sheet for 2018-19 in the middle of this Guidebook/Directory. Please take the time to discern what ministries God is calling you and then fill out the Time and Talent Signup Form and return on Time and Talent Signup Sunday (September 8-9, 2018). Please only return this Sheet if you are signing up for a NEW Ministry. If you are already participating in a Ministry, we will keep you signed up for that Ministry, so no need to fill out another sheet. We also ask that you would take a look at the businesses that have sponsored our new Guidebook/Directory and, just as you do for our Bulletin sponsors, use those businesses as you need their services.

(Treasure Sign Up Weekend will be Sept. 22-23).
CASAS AL SERVICIO DE DIOS

Antiguamente, la palabra “familia” tenía un significado muy amplio. Cuando Josué habla hoy de que su familia servirá al Señor, no se refería solo a las personas que vivían dentro de sus paredes ni a sus parientes de sangre o políticos; se refería a los esclavos o criados y sus familias y cualquier persona que estuviera en deuda con él por algún motivo. Incluso su ganado y demás bienes debían consagrase a servir a Dios. En nuestro mundo, valoramos mucho la libertad de los individuos para elegir de qué manera vivir y no se nos ocurriría poner a nuestras mascotas al servicio de Dios. Pero, al discernir nuestra vocación como discípulos bautizados en Cristo, llegamos a comprender la diversidad de las “familias” de nuestra vida: la manera en que obramos con nuestros cónyuges, hijos, compañeros de habitación o con quien sea que vivamos; nuestro comportamiento con los vecinos o en público ya que cada día nos topamos con muchos “extraños” en los negocios o en la calle, quienes de repente se convierten en “el vecino”. ¿De qué manera podemos usar nuestro tiempo, recursos o dones con fines desinteresados en vez de con el fin de obtener algún beneficio personal? Sin importar en qué clase de vida demos testimonio de la Buena Nueva, todos tenemos una “familia” que debe consagrase al servicio del Señor, nuestro Dios.

GOD’S WORLD: The principle behind stewardship is that every material thing, though you may call it yours... actually belongs to God. God owns it all; your land, your property, your income, your life. This is God’s world. When you give a truly significant portion of your money, you are only setting apart for God’s use a portion of the money that has been entrusted to you by God. A person who gives sacrificially does so because he or she knows whose world this is!
