Daily Prayer for the Healing of Victims and for an End to All Abuse
Father of endless love, always near to the broken-hearted; you gave your only Son to save us by His Blood on the Cross. Gentle Jesus, Shepherd of Peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by anyone within the Church who betrayed their trust.

Bring to an end all forms of abuse, wherever it is found. Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them and love your Church. Soothe their hearts, steady their faith, and grant them justice enlightened by your truth.

Give us faithful and holy clergy and religious; and keep them close to you and your Mother, so that they may never do anything in the slightest degree unworthy of their vocation, but may always be a reflection of your love and mercy.

Holy Spirit, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant your Church the grace to act with courage, humility, contrition, and resolve, so as to be a beacon of your love in the world. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors, and grant that all harmed by abuse find full and lasting healing and peace. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ guide and strengthen you this week!

We continue our reflection on how to be an apostle. I love our titles in Church! They’re not meant to be snobby. Remember the most common of them: Father, Sister, Brother, Mother. Family words! The Church is a family!

Our Lord said, “The Kingdom of God is within you.” The proverb says, “Charity begins at home.” As a Catholic, being a good relative, brother, sister, cousin, wife, husband, father, to a family member (especially a non-Catholic, or a non-practicing) is in itself, an apostolate.

That one relative might not appreciate a reminder to go to Church, but what about a spiritual bouquet? A note, a text, an email, saying, “Hey, I heard you just had your first child. Congratulations! I just wanted to say I’ll be praying 5 rosaries for his/her health.” Pick any occasion, happy or sad, then pick a prayer or practice (penance), and send the note. See what happens!

If I may, I’d like to reach out to you if you’re feeling lonely or isolated, without a family. Let us be your family! Here’s what you do. After Mass, go to coffee and donuts. Sit anywhere, and see what happens. If nothing happens the first Sunday, try a second and third. If you haven’t found your “home away from home” yet, please let me know, and we’ll see what we can do.

Families, be on the lookout for those without family. If someone attends Mass alone repeatedly, they need a family! Invite him/her for dinner. If you hesitate to invite them to your home, start with a local restaurant.

As you can see, the term “family apostolate” has so many meanings! Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,
Fr. Evans

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH
Time and Talent Signup  Next Weekend— September 8 and 9, 2018

We ask that you would please prayerfully read over the Guidebook you received in the mail and be prepared next weekend at Mass to sign up for a ministry.

- Time: All of our time should be used to honor God. We should set aside a portion of our week to focus on strengthening our relationship with God through prayer, Mass, Scripture reading, and serving others.
- Talent: We should assess our strengths and determine how they might help build the Kingdom of God. Each of us is gifted and can perform some action to help others.
- Treasure: Planning to return the first portion of our earnings to God is a way of showing our gratitude and commitment to stewardship. Tithing, giving the first 10% of what we receive, is the traditional (Biblical) guideline of how to give to God.

Want to become involved? Don’t think you have time to volunteer? Below are a few Ministries that are in need of volunteers and will hopefully fit into your schedule:

Liturgy:
- Eucharistic Ministers at Sunday Masses
- Altar Servers
- Sacristans for Sunday 10:30 am Mass
- Help at the 10:30 am Sunday Mass - Ushers at Sunday Masses (Men -Women- High School)
- Eucharistic Ministers to the Hospitals/ Nursing Homes

Religious Ed/School
- Religious Education Catechists/Co-Catechists
- Volunteers at School during Lunchtime

So be sure to sign up next weekend at the Masses. You will be contacted by email.

EL PRECEPTO MÁS IMPORTANTE

De vez en cuando, los periódicos y las revistas publican, a modo de “relleno”, diversas leyes que siguen en los libros pero que parecen ridículas en nuestra época. En una ciudad de California, es ilegal tener dos bañeras dentro de una casa. Cuando se pasó la ley era un lujo tener acceso al agua corriente, pero ahora que no lo es la ley parece ridícula. Sin embargo, el valor humano de proteger y preservar los recursos más valiosos sigue teniendo vigencia, esto se manifiesta en muchas leyes, que nos parecen muy acertadas, cuyo fin es proteger el medio ambiente. Suce-de lo mismo con los preceptos religiosos. Lo que Jesús desdeña hoy es la actitud de los demás respecto a los preceptos rituales, una actitud que se vuelve casi idólatra cuando se obedecen los preceptos por el mero hecho de obe-decerlos. Lo que Jesús enseña es que el cumplimiento de los preceptos rituales externos sólo tiene valor cuando simboliza nuestra predisposición interior a cumplir la voluntad de Dios. Nuestras vidas deben obedecer el precepto supremo de Dios: amar a Dios por encima de todo y al prójimo igual que nos amamos a nosotros. La religión católica es rica en costumbres, tradiciones e incluso preceptos. Al seguir escuchando la voz de Cristo, siempre debemos examinar nuestro corazón y nuestras prácticas rituales para asegurarnos de que el amor a Dios y al prójimo se halle por encima de todo lo demás.
