Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May Christ enlighten and strengthen you this week!

“Father, what do I do? I have this friend who is…” Non-believing, struggling with this/that vice, substance, or Church teaching. I must admit, I love getting questions like that! It means I’m helping an apostle be an apostle.

So after the last two week’s diversions, we resume our discussion of the various ways to be an apostle. Yes, apostolate of friendship is real!

Why is your friend, your friend? Usually, this question is answered in one of three ways. 1. I enjoy being with him/her. 2. We happen to like the same activity (common interest). 3. He/She helps me become better, and vice versa. Our good friend Aristotle named these three, the friendship of pleasure, the friendship of utility, and the friendship of virtue, respectively. He also points out that the third kind of friendship, where the two help each other become better, includes the first two kinds of friendship. Virtuous friendship is both enjoyable, and useful.

Do I have at least one friend who makes me a better man/woman, Catholic? Do I have a friend whom I am helping to be better? If you can say yes to both of these questions, you’re doing the apostolate of friendship! Evangelization in; evangelization out! Keep up the good work!

Below is a picture of two men who I like to think were friends. A priest once told me that, when he was in Rome as a seminarian, he and some friends went to dinner at a local restaurant. As they were enjoying their meal, Cardinal Ratzinger walked in, and was seated at another end of the room. The Cardinal finished his meal quickly, and as he walked out, he dropped a note on the seminarians’ table. It read, “My dear American brothers, your laughter and fraternity have given this old man a joy that is almost perfect. Alas, if only you had been Germans! —Jozef Cardinal Ratzinger.” When the time came to pay the bill, the young men were told that it had been paid.

As our friends in Cursillo often say, “Make a friend. Be a friend. Bring that friend to Christ!” Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

DEMASIADA INFORMACIÓN PARA MI GUSTO

Existe una expresión de uso corriente: “Demasiada información para mi gusto”. Generalmente decimos esto cuando alguien nos da detalles sobre su vida que no deseamos o no necesitamos saber. Hoy, cuando Santiago y Juan le hacen una pregunta simple a Jesús y le piden ocupar lugares de honor en el Reino, Jesús podría haberles dado una respuesta simple. Pero, como suele hacerlo, responde una pregunta con otra pregunta, en este caso se trata de beber el cálice del sufrimiento. Luego, cuando los demás se indignan contra el atrevido pedido de Santiago y Juan, Jesús les dice algo que puede haber sido “demasiada información” para el gusto de los seguidores, quienes sólo estaban interesados en alcanzar la gloria. Pero esta información, aunque algunas veces pueda parecer “demasiada” para nuestro gusto, es vital para nuestras vidas como discípulos. Hoy en Isaías, en hebreos y en Marcos, conocemos esta información: sólo mediante el sufrimiento, la debilidad y el servicio generoso a los demás comprenderemos el Reino. Ésta es la información que necesitamos para encontrar nuestro lugar y poder ser honrados en el Reino de Dios. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
SIGNATURE AD IN THE Northwest Herald
The weekend of October 27 and 28 after the weekend Masses, we will have volunteers at the Oak St. Church doors who will accept your signatures and donations (suggested amount is $5.00) for the newspaper ad to be placed in the Northwest Herald in January 2019. Many churches in the area will join forces for this ad to protest the Supreme Court decision making it legal to kill the unborn, for any reason, at any time, before birth. January 22, 2019 will mark the 46th anniversary of Roe v Wade. Thank you.

THE MESSAGE OF CARING: The gift of money, while forever needed, cannot tell the whole story. The most precious gift, always, is the message that you care. There are, in practical terms, only two ways of showing how much you care for a particular cause. One is the amount of work you do for it; the other is the amount of substance you give to it.
