Advent Wreath Prayer
Fourth Sunday of Advent
(light four candles)

Many families do the lighting of the candles at the main meal in the evening. A suggested prayer for the candle lighting for the fourth week of Advent is:

Four Candles are Lit Loving God, we thank You for Your gift of love—shown to us perfectly in Jesus Christ our Lord. Help us prepare our hearts for the Lord’s coming by loving others as Christ loves us. We ask this in the name of the one born in Bethlehem, Jesus our Lord. Amen.”

REVEREND JOHN R. EVANS, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the Infant King guide and strengthen you this Christmas and throughout the week!

“Father, what do I DO in the adoration chapel??” Another way to ask this, is “Father, what is mental prayer?” Last week, we discussed daily spiritual reading. When we read, God speaks to us; when we pray, we speak back to God. Spiritual reading is little without mental prayer. What is mental prayer? It is prayer made, not just with the lips, but with the mind and heart. It is “wasting time with God,” as Pope Francis calls it. It is carefree time with someone you love, Who loves you back.

When people become Catholic, having been raised Protestant, they are often most familiar with this type of prayer. For them, the more formal prayers, perhaps recited from a book, are the more difficult to get used to. Typically, though, for cradle Catholics like myself, the formal prayers come easily, while this informal kind is the more difficult. To you, I say, give it a try! Block out 5-10 minutes a day, for the next three weeks, and it will soon become your favorite way to pray.

If the adoration chapel is the only place you can find 10 minutes of undisturbed quiet time, please go there! If you have a place in your home free of distractions, feel free to use that. All the saints who have written on personal prayer, tell us to begin with two steps. 1. Remember that God is present. 2. Ask His help to pray well.

After your prayer time, they tell us to do two more things. 1. Thank Him for His time. 2. Ask His help to live well.

Now, how to spend the time in between? However you want! What do you talk to Him about? Whatever you want! Think of your favorite bible story. Look at your nativity scene or another holy image. A seminary classmate used to keep a notecard in his pocket. At random times, he would pull it out and write something down. “Pray for N, who just...” “How can I grow in this virtue?” “This Hebrew is really hard.” He wrote down different topics that he could talk to God about. Then, when it came time to pray, he always had “material.”

Just like the three women in the picture, we each pray in a slightly different way, but we all need it! Until next week, know that I remain

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. Evans

RECUERDOS Y SUEÑOS

En el curso de nuestra vida mantenemos el idioma y los hábitos de nuestra región nativa y familia de origen. Cuando retornamos a nuestro hogar tras una larga ausencia, rápidamente volvemos a su manera de hablar y a sus prácticas familiares. Nuestros profundos recuerdos se reflejan en viejas historias y palabras y en modos de conversar. Esta familiaridad corre como un río subterráneo y nos acompaña a donde sea que vayamos.

No solamente recordamos, sino que somos incorporados y formamos parte de una memoria más amplia. Cuando traemos recuerdos a la mente somos a la vez reunidos y recordados.

Hoy recordamos a María, una joven frágil, que recorre zonas rurales para visitar a Isabel. Todos los grandes pronunciamientos y sueños de los profetas apuntan a este tiempo en que deben cumplirse las palabras del Señor a María. Las memorias de su pueblo están vivas en ella, y esas memorias alimentan nuestra fe viva.

Generosity is Relative: Generosity, of course, is relative. Twenty dollars from one person is very generous, from another, a mere pittance. When it comes to Church support, therefore, that’s why we are asked not for equal giving, but for equal sacrifice. Only the giving individual—and God—can judge when there is sacrifice. Stewardship takes all of us into account. The Church doesn’t just need to receive money….you need to be generous.
